FROM THE PRINCIPAL
Dear Families,

Every morning when I visit Ms. Malseed's kindergarten class, the boys cannot wait to tell me the number of the school day. By the way, today is the 39th school day. I love checking in with these sweet, young scholars. For them, life is all about counting right now. As we age, we learn, as Muhammad Ali said to, "not count the days, but instead make the days count." CYM SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIPS
The Varsity 'Red' Soccer team, coached by Mr. Farley and Mr. Manlove, is in the CYM Championships! Please make sure to come out and support your Lancers as they take on Saint Ann's School on Sunday, 11/2 at 6:00pm at Saint Mark's High School. Let's see if we can get more Lancers in the stands than Mustangs!

JK & K VISIT DR. ANZILOTTI'S OFFICE
On Tuesday, the Junior Kindergarten & Kindergarten classes rode a school bus to Dr. Anzilotti's office to see a production of Frozen! They were thrilled because there were special effects (snow and bubbles). The boys joined right in and sang along with the cast. They were excited to learn that Prince Hans (Dr. Kert Anziolotti '84) was an official Saint Edmond's alumnus. That really impressed them!

LIONS CLUB PEACE POSTER CONTEST

Each year our 6th graders take part in the Lions Club Annual ‘Peace Poster’ Contest. This year the theme was "Peace, Love & Knowledge". This is a difficult task as the images must be large and no words may be used. We have so many talented artists but this year the work of Maclaren Blow has been chosen to go on to compete against other area schools. Runners-Up were Jack Krukiel and Aaron Onesi. The judges are always impressed with the creativity and talent of Saint Edmond's Academy boys.
