FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Families and Friends of SEA,
As the song goes, "It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas. As much as I adore the holidays, it feels as if December crashed in without much warning. Suddenly, the entire school smells like pine trees. Tonight we'll host Christmas Trees on Parade (5:30) and an evening to hear our youngest scholars sing in their Christmas Concert begins at 6pm. Please come visit our beautifully decorated trees and spend time with the S.E.A community. Santa will be here, too! I hope to see you all. [Click here to read more.]

SIXTH GRADE TREE-TRIMMING PARTY

For the fourth year in a row in what is becoming a great tradition, the sixth grade classes from Ursuline and Saint Edmond's came together to decorate two trees for Christmas Trees on Parade. This year's theme is 'Movie Night'. Our boys each framed an Ursuline girl's picture on a popcorn box, filled it with popcorn and turned it into an ornament. The girls did the same. They gathered here last night to decorate the trees, play games, eat pizza and (if you can believe it) sing Christmas Carols. Many thanks to the chaperones and organizers.
FACULTY & STAFF CHRISTMAS FUND

In keeping with a nearly 25 year old tradition, we are again asking for donations for the Faculty & Staff Christmas Fund. Please consider sending a donation, in any amount, to the attention of Bill D'Amato by Wednesday, 12/17. Thank you as always!

BARNES & NOBLE NIGHT

December 10th, 5:30-8
Bring the family over to Barnes & Noble for some holiday book shopping. Mention SEA at the checkout and a portion of the evening's sales will be returned to us. Santa might even be making an appearance! Free homework passes for all those students who attend! Click here for vouchers.

MRS. WAGNER’S THIRD GRADE CLASS

Mrs. Wagner's third grade class has been working together to read and understand mystery novels. Students had to activate several reading strategies like summarizing, visualizing, asking/answering questions to solve the mysteries. The featured novels are From the Mixed Up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler, The Case of the Back To School Burglar, White House White Out and The Clue of the Left-Handed Envelope.
