FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Families,

Yesterday I worked in the lunch line with Brother Joe. We served hot roast beef sandwiches to the boys. I am not always able to help out our Café Manager (Joe Cann) but when I can, I jump at the chance to wear that apron. I find it fascinating to watch the boys from this viewpoint. I find I learn even more about a student outside the classroom, and that what I enjoy most is relaxing and laughing with them. Being their principal doesn’t often afford me these opportunities so I treasure these moments when I can. [Click here to read more.]
