FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Academy Parents, “Call it a clan, call it a network, call it a tribe, call it a family. Whatever you call it, whoever you are, you need one.” (Jane Howard, actress/novelist) Today is Grandparent’s Day, and I believe this quote fits perfectly with the meaning of Saint Edmond’s Academy today. Today, it’s about family. Every boy needs a family, clan or tribe. I am lucky. My entire life has been surrounded by a family full of siblings, parents, cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents...honestly too many to count. Read More.

DR. HARRY FINKELSTEIN at the ACADEMY

THIS Wednesday, October 1st, all sixth grade parents (and any new seventh grade parents) are encouraged to attend our annual sixth grade talking series. I am thrilled to announce that Dr. Finkelstein will return again this year to lead the discussion. Dr. Finkelstein is a practicing licensed psychologist in the Wilmington area. In over 25 years of working with children, teens and young adults, he has developed a variety of techniques to understand problems and identify solutions. Dr. Finkelstein will focus on the biological, psychological, and physiological changes of a pre-adolescent/adolescent boy. Join us at 7pm in the Rollins Center for the Performing Arts.

NOTRE DAME GLEE CLUB at THE ACADEMY

The Glee Club, one of the most renowned all-male choruses in the United States, will feature a program of a cappella works that covers a broad range of music from medieval works to contemporary compositions for male chorus. The group will be at the Academy on October 19th at 7:00pm. The program delivered in each performance is always filled with variety that highlights the Glee Club’s scholasticism, musicianship, and dynamic control as an ensemble.

“We want our audiences to receive an educational experience as well,” says director Daniel Stowe. The first half of the program typically features music from the Renaissance, Classical, and even Romantic eras. The program continues with an exciting second half of sea shanties, folk songs, barbershop tunes, and African-American spirituals. Undoubtedly, the Glee Club will conclude its concert with the internationally recognized University fight song, “The Notre Dame Victory March.” Tickets can be purchased for $10/ child or student at http://notre-dame-club-of-delaware.ticketleap.com/glee/

This donation will benefit the Christmas Program, Spring Musical and the Academy Choral Programs. The Arts Program at the Academy is superior and the Parents Guild is thrilled to contribute. Thank you, Ms. DeHart for all of your dedication over the last 35 years. On another note: Thank you to Nicole Reilley (mother of Braden, 3-1) and Ava Illingworth (mother of Lincoln, 1-1) and the many other parents who organized Grandparents’ Day and made it run so smoothly.
